Submission of Drawing Corrections

Honorable Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231
Sir:

The applicant respectfully submits that there are apparent errors to the submitted drawings figures 1, 3, and 4. Due to printing errors, most of the important wordings which describes the block diagrams were not shown on the drawing figures 1, 3, and 4. Thus, the applicant respectfully submits the corrected drawings herewith. Enclosed are the corrected drawings in triplicates. Please replace these with the ones in file.

Furthermore, the applicant respectfully asserts that the occurrence of errors was due to a computer printing problems and the replaced drawings were exactly as shown on a priority claimed specification. The applicant further asserts that there were no new matters added to the drawings. A duplicate of the figures 1, 3, and 4 which belongs the priority claims specification is enclosed herewith for the examiner's review.

Thank you for your assistance and if there are any required fees for this submission, the Commissioner is authorized to charge it to the following account: Account Name: David and Raymond Patent Firm; Account Number: 502111.

Respectfully submitted,

Raymond Y. C. Chan
